- 2019 In September, Gilah Yelin Hirsch, professor of art, was the visiting artist at the New Delhi College of Art, and at the Punjab Lalit Kala Akademi, in Chandigarh, India. As visiting artist, Hirsch worked with graduate and undergraduate students, and delivered various comprehensive presentations regarding her multidisciplinary work. Her film, Reading the Landscape, won the official selection Silver Award in the "Short Documentary" category at the 2019 International Independent Film Awards. In October, the film was presented in Kathmandu, Nepal, during the International Conference on Culture and Global Mental Health: Culture, Spirituality and Mental Health. Hirsch's artwork as well as a video presentation were featured in Table of Content: Table of Contact exhibit at the Jerusalem Biennale in Israel, which ran from Oct. 10 through the end of November.

Hirsch's paintings are currently featured in the exhibition Deeply Rooted at Valley Beth Shalom, in Encino, CA, until Dec. 5. She will provide the keynote address during the Creativity 2019 conference, which takes place Dec. 8-13 in Rio de Janeiro at the Brazilian Academy of Philosophy. Gilah Yelin Hirsch, professor of art, will be included in two upcoming exhibitions. Himalayan Flight Series, Palimpsest 1 and Dorado are two of a series of four experimental pieces she created at the invitation of and in collaboration with Solo Impression, Inc. in New York City. The work will be featured in the Art on Paper Fair exhibit opening March 7. Her piece Infinitely Connected will be shown in Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself exhibition at the Pacific Union Project, open from April 7th to June 1.

Hirsch will also have a public screening of her film Reading the Landscape hosted at the Edgemar Center for the Arts on March 10 in Santa Monica, CA, and at CSUDH in the Loker Student Union Grand Ballroom on March 14, both take place from 3 to 5 p.m. Reading the Landscape combines science and art in a magical voyage around the world following the migratory patterns of humankind. Both events are free of charge. To RSVP send an email to studio.RTL@gilah.com.
